

Apply for a FREE community service ad

We understand the importance of community service. The various service organizations in our area are a vital part of the community. That's why, for the 48th consecutive year, Lakestone Bank & Trust is offering free ads to several deserving community organizations.

The deadline to apply is December 31, 2017, for an ad which will be placed during 2018. Selection is based on those organizations whose activities benefit the greatest number of people. The selected organizations will be notified by January 31, 2018.

Applications are available at LAKESTONEbank.com or you can simply complete the application below and return it to:
